MOODY'S MEETINGS.

Sunday Meetings in the Rink—Immense Audiences.

The meeting on Sunday evening was opened at 7:30 o'clock with a song service by the choir, under Mr. J. G. Brown. Before 8 o'clock the large skating rink was filled to its utmost capacity. When the great revivalist arrived he asked the audience to join in singing "I Know Whom I Have Believed." Rev. P. McF. MacLeod offered an earnest prayer, followed by the audience rising and singing "Jesus is Calling to Save." Mr. Moody announced that he would speak in the Methodist church at 3 o'clock this afternoon; a prayer meeting at 4 o'clock and another mass meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the skating rink. The speaker then took for his text the 3rd chapter of Timothy, 1st verse: "The Lord said unto Noah come thou and all thy house into the ark." People would ask whether he came there to talk about Noah. He came there to speak of the Old Testament and God set his seal on everything in that old book. He believed in that testament from beginning to end; if he gave up any portion of it he would give up the whole of its teachings. He believed firmly in the story of Noah and would say that people had no idea of the wickedness of the old antideluvian world, in which men lived for thousands of years. He did not know what kind of a world this would be if men lived until they attained the age of one thousand years. If they had saloons in those days they made fun of Noah; the reason for this was because where there is rum there is unbelief and violence. Rum destroyed Sodom and will destroy this country if the people do not destroy it. No one outside Noah's family believed him, and if newspapers were in existence they printed articles headed "Noah and his folly." There were athiests in those days who stated that the world made itself; force and matter worked together and this beautiful world was the result; they did not believe in a God, and they exist to-day. He would ask them how long the Canadian Government would exist if men were not punished for their misdeeds; and still these atheists believe that God will not punish. They say we can build better boats than Noah's old ark and like the boys in those days they mock at the old story. The sun shone and everything was as it is now. There was no sign of the coming storm, and still men jeered at Noah and his ark. Can you imagine the beautiful morning when Noah's ark was completed and he left his home and entered it with his family. If that ark was put up at auction no one would buy it for kindling wood. He would say to the boys present that the Old Testament is worth more than the whole world. Noah received his instructions from God, and when he entered the ark you can imagine what happened when the birds and animals flocked to that unsightly thing. The seven days passed; the last day arrived; the last hour; the last minute, and the last second. Do you ever think of that last second? When the storm burst they knocked at the door of Noah's ark; Noah answered that God locked the door. That door is open for you to-night and you are warned of the coming storm. Fathers and mothers, are you in the ark? Are your children in the ark? God asked Noah whether all his children were in. Are all your children in? What God said to Noah He says to you to-night, are all your children in? Father, where is your son to-night? Mother, where is your daughter? You imagine your children are in because you have found a place there. God charges all to care for their children. What God says to Noah he says to you. If you read your Bible and followed its teachings you will have reason to thank God.

Mr. Moody, at the conclusion of his address, invited all to come into a room adjoining to hear a few words of advice and consolation.

Rev. J. E. Starr said numbers in the audience wanted to be saved and also their children; he advised his hearers to take their children by the hand and lead them up to a better life.

Rev. P. MacF. MacLeod said Mr. Moody was ready to show the light to those in darkness; God could put darkness and doubt away; God was willing to help and there was no reason for hesitation.

The meeting was then dismissed with the benediction.

Mr. Moody will remain in the city during the whole of this week. Services will be held daily at 3 o'clock in the Pandora Street Methodist Church and at 7:30 o'clock every evening in the Roller Rink.

Mr. Moody's services on Sunday morning commenced at 9:30 o'clock in the Methodist church on Pandora street. The large building was almost filled with an audience entirely in sympathy with the movement. At 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon another revival was held in the Roller Rink, at which a large concourse of people listened to the renowned evangelist, who spoke on the world: "First secure the kingdom of heaven, &c." The greatest interest was taken in the remarks of the speaker, and at the close of the sermon about thirty stood up on the invitation of the evangelist, thereby signifying their desire for the prayers of the faithful. At this service Mr. Moody desired that the doors should be kept closed after the service began and that there should be no moving out and in, in order that the attention of his hearers might not be distracted. The idea was a good one.

Dear Bread.

A prominent miller in speaking the other day in Montreal about the rise in the price of bread said that commodity would go up still higher and that before long. All the talk about the surplus of good wheat in Manitoba and the Northwest," he said, "is all humbug." From the best authority I know for a fact that not more than twenty-five per cent. of the wheat raised in the Prairie province and territories if fit for making good flour. The other seventy-five per cent. is badly damaged by frost but of course this is kept dark for fear of injuring immigration westward. The frost 'gave Manitoba and the Northwest territories just as hard a whack as Dakota got and the result is that the wheat is bad. This frosted wheat makes the kind of dough which bakers and housewives will understand by the words "it runs." The covering of the wheat berry damaged by frost is very thick and the dough inside is next to worthless. It does not weigh what it should, there is so much husk on it. People in the eastern provinces will have to depend on their own wheat for good flour. The Ogilvies in Montreal said what was very true when they said there would be no wheat for export. They had experts travelling through the west, and these experts pronounced the wheat crop there a failure owing to the frost.

NORTHERN PACIFIC EXTENSION.

Chicago, Oct. 15—Henry Villard and President Colby, of the Wisconsin Central road, have arrived here. Villard has just returned from a trip over the Northern Pacific and the fact that he has also gone over the line of the Wisconsin Central with President Colby has given rise to a story that arrangements are on foot for a close alliance of the two corporations. President Colby has repeatedly denied that the Wisconsin Central is to be leased to the Northern Pacific, but it is well known that a large portion of the securities of both roads are held by the same people.

THURMAN'S ACCEPTANCE.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 15.—Judge Thurman, in his letter of acceptance says: "President Cleveland's administration has been marked by such integrity, good sense, manly courage and exalted patriotism, that a just appreciation of these high qualities seems to call for his re-election. I am also strongly impressed with the belief that his re-election would powerfully tend to strengthen that feeling of fraternity among the American people that is so essential to their welfare, peace and happiness, and to the perpetuity of the Union and our free institutions. I approve of the platform of the St. Louis convention, and I cannot too strongly express my dissent from the heretical teachings of the monopolists that the welfare of the people can be promoted by a system of exorbitant taxation far in excess of the wants of the government. The idea that a people can be enriched by heavy and unnecessary taxation, that a people's condition can be improved by taxing him on all that he wears, on all that his wife and children wear, on all of his tools and implements of industry, is an obvious absurdity."

INSANE MAN ARRESTED.

The men employed by the company since the strike began will also be retained. The minor questions at issue will be settled by arbitration,

Berlin, Oct. 15—Forty thousand copies of Mackenzie's books were seized at Liepsic by the police to-day. The book will not be allowed to be sold in this city. The police are seizing the copies exposed for sale at all the book shops in Berlin.

EXCLUSION BILL CONSTITUTIONAL.

San Francisco, Oct. 15—United States Circuit Judge Sawyer gave an oral decision this morning in the two Chinese cases argued last week to test the constitutionality of the Scott exclusion act. The judge's decision, which is concurred in by U. S. District Judge Hoffman, holds that the act is constitutional, and that all Chinese who have arrived here since its passage, and who may hereafter arrive, must return from whence they came. A written decision will be rendered this afternoon.

THE CAR STRIKERS.

The next six cars then run but after going three blocks we attacked by a mob, who made an assault upon the new drivers and conductors. Stones and missles were freely used. An attempt was made to drag the new men off the cars. The police appeared and the men ran away. At 10 o'clock everything was quiet and the cars running as usual. One arrest was made.

One of the old employees assaulted a new grip man at Garfield avenue barns at noon to-day. The grip drew a revolver and shot the stranger dangerously in the leg. There is much excitement.

THE OPIUM SMUGGLERS.

Spotted for the Last Two or Three Years.

The Port Townsend Call of Friday last contains the following: "The two female smugglers bound over yesterday in $400 each are unable to give bonds. The son of Mrs. Kate Le Lievre, a young man about 23 years of age, rather good looking, came over from Victoria this morning, and said he was unable to procure bail for his mother. They are in charge of Deputy U. S. Marshal Loftus, who has no accommodations for female prisoners, excepting the county jail, which is at present filled with ruffian sailors, and an improper place to imprison females. The marshal kindly allowed the women to remain at his house last night and after learning that they were unable to give bonds telegraphed to U. S. Marshal Hamilton, of Seattle, that he could not keep the women here owing to the lack of proper prison accommodations. The elder woman had been "spotted" for the last two or three years and is known as being quite an adept at violating the customs laws. The younger woman, Nellie Jelis, is married and her husband lives in Victoria and is said to be very careless. It does seem as though both son and husband are utterly void of human feeling if they were cognizant of the actions of their relatives and knowingly allowed them to indulge in smuggling and then when captured not give the requisite bonds for their release."

THE LATE ARCHBISHOP.

The Thetis will Arrive About Nov. 10th With Remains.

Rev. Father Van Nevel announced to the congregation at St. Andrews' pro-Cathedral on Sunday morning that authentic information was received concerning the arrival of the remains of the late lamented Archbishop. The letter conveying the information states that the remains were taken from a temporary grave at St. Michael's on Sept. 11th. They were encased in three caskets. The outer casing of iron was opened and it was found that the body was in a good state of preservation. The remains were conveyed on board the United States man-of-war Thetis, and placed on the quarter deck. The vessel will sail from Sitka on the 25th inst., and will call at Juneau before sailing for Departure Bay, where she will remain for three days for the purpose of coaling. The warship will arrive at Nanaimo about Nov. 10th. A telegraphic message will be sent to His Lordship Bishop Lemmens on the arrival of the Thetis at Departure Bay. After coaling at Nanaimo the vessel will sail for Esquimalt, where the remains will be landed. The body will be conveyed to the residence of the Clergy on Yates street, and will be kept for several days to give the Clergy of the diocese an opportunity to attend the funeral. Further information is expected by the next steamer from the north.

And the Doors Were Shut.

Complaints have been made by parties who were unable to obtain an entrance into the rink to Mr. Moody's services last night and yesterday afternoon, hundreds being turned away, especially at the evening meeting. In explanation it is only necessary to say that it is a rule observed by Mr. Moody all over the world to have the doors shut while the services are going on. Where such immense concourses are drawn together it is apparent that some such course is necessary or the meetings would be continually disturbed by people going and coming. The action was not taken as some supposed from fear of the foundations of the building. At last night's meeting it was filled to its fullest capacity and could not have held any more. Those who wish to get seats should go early.

A Contemporary's Opinion.

The News-Advertiser commends in warm terms THE TIMES article on the "Joggins' raft business." It says: "We have always conceded that THE TIMES was the brightest of our provincial contemporaries, and also as unscrupulous as any of them, and its utterances of Friday confirm the correctness of the opinions we have held." That would have been a very pretty compliment if it had not been spoiled by the editor.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

In reference to the munificent donation of Mr. GALPIN of $500 worth of books to the city, we would call the attention of our fellow citizens of the monied class, of which it is our boast there are not a few, to the necessity of providing a suitable building for a Public Library and recreation rooms for our workingmen. We have ere now advocated the establishment of a proper institute for the purpose in question. The city council has, by the late by-law, made a handsome provision towards maintenance, and secured the books of the old Mechanics' Institute, which with the addition of the GALPIN gift will go a long way towards establishing the public library, if properly managed at the outset, on a lasting foundation. We have the books and $1,200 annually towards maintenance, and now require a suitable building. Some assert that our wealthy men have done wonders for Victoria. We fail to notice any movement of local philanthropic munificence, and may search in vain for anything pertaining thereto, with the exception of a drinking fountain at the junction of Government and Douglas streets, which was at one time ornamental, but now has been allowed to lapse into decay and ruin. Our city can not boast of any public building that is either ornamental or useful, and the few that there are would not be an acquisition to any town of pretensions in the backwoods, much less a credit to the capital city of British Columbia. Let us have a building for our Public Library that will be a credit and an ornament; attractive in its interior arrangements, so as to secure the patronage of the class it is intended to benefit, where the leisure time of all may be passed in comfort, pleasurably and profitably. Then could we point with pride to the philantropic liberality of the donors.

A QUESTION OF PRINCIPLE.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser congratulates this paper on its harrisen above certain "Grit" principles in dealing with the raft question in last Friday's issue. For the benefit of our courteous contemporary it may be stated that THE TIMES is not wedded to any principle or set of principles that will promote not the prosperity of this province. But in saying this it does not wish to be understood as saying that the general policy of the so-called "Grit" party is inimical to the interests of this country. Far from it, for the reason that we cannot help recognizing that there is much in that policy which would prove a grand elixir to trade in British Columbia. What this province wants first of all is cheap supplies to enable the white laborer to live and prosper on what are at present undeveloped resources. The "Grit" policy seems to make that end possible. There are things, however, in the policies of both parties that we can neither wholly condemn nor wholly approve of, so that the interests of party cannot be taken as an invariable rule in the guidance of our actions. There appears to be only one safe test to which a journal can put any important question which it essays to discuss, and that is the following: First, is it right? Second, is it in the interests of the country? If it is, go ahead; so much the better if it is in the interests of the party.

FEMALE IMMIGRATION.

According to a report issued by the Secretary for Promoting the Employment of Women, it appears that there are some three million more women than men in the United Kingdom. About half of them are married, and over 60 per cent. are dependant on their own exertions for a livelihood. Here is a vast field for the emigration agent. We in British Columbia, especially in Victoria, are suffering from a want of female domestic help. We are forced to employ Chinese instead, not only in the household, but largely in our industries, where female labor would be suitable. The rate of wages demanded by the Chinese would be considered by the working women of the United Kingdom as beyond their most sanguine expectations. Were this province to secure an immigration of working women sufficient to take the place of the Chinese, we would have a very desirable addition to our population. Their earnings would either be spent or invested in the country. Many of them would no doubt marry and become the mothers of happy families, who would assist in after years in developing our natural resources. The wages and other inducements are sufficient to secure the flow of a stream of immigration, which would supply a long felt want, and place the employer of domestic help beyond the whim of Chinese combines, that exist much to the annoyance and inconvenience of many. A well organized Provincial Immigration Department would be of great benefit, and it is extraordinary that nothing has been done in this direction while so much money is being spent in less useful immigration schemes. It is also a sphere where a private society, having for its object the settling up of the country, could well lend its aid to the government.

THE MINING INDUSTRY.

The complete reports on the mining and mineral statistics of Canada for 1887, being a portion of the annual report of the geological survey, has been issued. From this it is possible to arrive at a pretty accurate estimate of the value of the mineral products of Canada, and it will be observed, on reference to the tabulated statement following, that the mining industry of the Dominion, which is still in the early days of infancy, has already attained to considerable importance. The total value of the entire product is $15,000,000, as follows:

This is the product for 1877. An examination of the list will show that while coal and iron are at the head, they are not the only minerals made valuable by labor. There are many other varieties which do not require the employment of large capital to render them marketable, and which can be utilized and made valuable by men of ordinary means. Our exports of the products named, for the same period, 1887, were estimated at $4,300,000, of which 78 per cent., or $3,358,000, went to the United States, 15 per cent. to Great Britain, Newfoundland, Germany, Sandwich Islands, Australia, Argentine Republic and the East and West Indies ranking as purchasers in the order named. In order of value, the minerals exported were coal, gold, phosphates, iron and steel, silver, asbestos, gypsum, copper, lime and cement, stone and marble, manganese ore, grindstones, &c.

Our import of minerals, during the same period, are placed at $27,166,966, the principal items being:

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A private letter from Sydney, Australia, says the people there are kicking vigorously because coal is $5 a ton.

It is announced that Mr. C. D. Barr of the Lindsay Post is to take the management of the London Advertiser. Mr. Barr is a thoroughly competent journalist.

In a recent Sunday evening address, Rev. Dr. Blackie, of Edinburg challenged any one to produce a better psalm than the song. "A man's a man for a' that."

The following is a sample of independent journalism, outspoken and above board. We clip the item from the Spring Green, (Wis.,) Home News: "We will vote for James Morgan for Governor, because he advertises in this paper; if Hoard will advertise in it we will vote for him, too. This is political economy." Why don't the independent journals of British Columbia speak out in like language? It would be more manly and honest were they to do so.

The evolution of names of old world towns is an interesting study. For example, in an atlas published in 1587 Glasgow is spelt Glasquo and Linlithgow is put down as Lythquo. In a discussion which has been set on foot in the Glasgow papers, it is contended that the origin of the names of that city is to be traced to a Gaelic word Glassachu, or the place of green fields. There are very few green fields within the corporation limits nowadays.

Mr. Blaine telegraphed on the eve of the recent State election in Maine that the result was a "revolution" of the Republicans. The whole truth is now out in the official returns. In a total vote of 140,436, the Democrats have increased their vote 3279 and the Republicans 1625. A proportionate gain in New York would give that State to Cleveland by over 21,000 plurality, Indiana by over 15,000, New Jersey by about 9000, Connecticut by 3790, and Michigan by 3400.

There is a great increase in the assessed value of Toronto since last year. The assessment reaches the figure of $113,188,828, being an increase of $14,885,927 over the amount of last year. This does not take into account $15,887,404 worth of property which is exempted under the law. A large part of this exempted property, ought, in equity, to be subject to taxation. The increase in assessments is due to three causes; the annexation of suburbs has brought an additional area within the limits of the city, the value of new buildings counts for much, and the price of building land has gone up.

VANCOUVER NEWS.

Slugging and Wrestling Matches—Two Lively Events.

From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, Oct. 13—An Italian with an educated bear was attracting considerable attention to-day by an exhibition of grizzley performances. A quadruple band of Italian musicians entered the city this morning and discoursed music in our streets all day, and in the saloons at night.

The barque "India," Capt. Schuanwedel, sailed from Moodyville to-day for Valparaiso, with 302,148 feet of flooring and 531,981 feet of rough lumber.

The German bark Johanne Berthe, Captain Schwart, arrived at Moodyville this forenoon to load lumber. She sailed up the Gulf to the mouth of the Narrows, from which point only did she require to be towed.

The match which was to have taken place to-day between the members of the old and new football clubs was postponed on account of the weather. Nevertheless sides were chosen by Messrs. Benwell and Ellwood, and a very spirited game was played, resulting in a draw, neither side having scored when time was called.

Hart's Opera House was well filled last night with a crowd of men and boys eager to witness the glove contest between "Prof." R. Foster, of Montreal, and G. J. Irvine, champion of the Northwest, for stakes of $250 and the gate receipts, which amounted to $500 more. As the Marquis of Queensbery, one of the originators of the rules, and who is at present in the city, did not arrive in time to act as referee, owing to a misunderstanding of the time, that position was occupied by Mr. R. Logan, of Montreal. The local celebrities failed to show up in the overture as arranged, and at 8:20 time was called and the rivals for glory stepped into the ring. Foster was about 9 lbs. heavier than Irvine, who weighed only 123 lbs. but who appeared more active and at the first seemed to have a little the advantage. Eight rounds, in which some lively and well balanced hitting was done, showed honors to be about even, but in the ninth round Foster got in a heavy blow on Irvine's neck, which completely knocked him out, and failing to respond within ten seconds after time was called the decision was given in favor of Foster. Throughout the contest the best of order prevailed.

The wrestling match to-night between D. E. Cameron, Victoria, and John Richardson, Illicilliwaet, champion wrestler of British Columbia, for stakes of $250 a side and the gate receipts, attracted a large crowd of spectators to the Opera House to-night. The style was catch-as-catch-can, best three falls out of five, Police Gazette rules. Cameron is an all-round athlete, tall, bony and muscular, and weighs 185 lbs. when stripped. His second was William McHenry. Richardson is considerably shorter, standing about 5 feet 9 inches, but of herculean build, and weighs about 190 lbs. His second was Jack Ashcroft, a plucky little Manchester Englishman. W. J. Gillespie, after considerable persuasion, consented to act as referee, and Mr. Wm. McGier as time keeper. Shortly after nine the contestants stepped upon the canvas, and from the fire of their eyes it was easily to be seen that each was determined to win. Richardson was rather impetuous and tried to force the opening. Dropping suddenly on his knees he grasped his opponent by the legs and tossed him over his head, but with remarkable agility he alighted on his feet, but before he could recover his guard Richardson had thrown him side down. With a dexterous twist Cameron recovered and as unexpectedly that, in the next instant his rival was lying beneath him with both shoulders down. Time, 2 min. 20 sec. The betting, which previous to the opening had been very lively and somewhat in favor of Richardson, now stopped, fifty dollars being offered on Cameron without a taker. When time was again called at the end of fifteen minutes, both men "bobbed up serenely." This time both men were more watchful and if possible more determined. Richardson pursued his former tactics and again seized his antagonist by the leg, but by a nimble movement he freed himself and in the struggle both came to their knees, where they tugged and strained with fearful effort for the mastery. At length Cameron gained an advantage and forced his opponent back against the screen. The struggle now grew desperate, Cameron still retaining the advantage with a secure back hold. After a protracted manouvre in this position Richardson secured a leg hold and with a furious rush carried Cameron over against the partition at the side of the stage, knocking off several of the boards and shattering a lamp which was attached to the wall. Cameron here asked to be released in order to escape from the hot and broken glass, but Richardson held his grip and endeavored to down his man. Both men again came to their knees side by side in a position most favorable to Cameron, when Richardson cried for quarter, being gashed in several places on the hand and leg, while Cameron was suffering from a severe cut on the left forearm near the elbow. At this stage of the proceedings a regular riot ensued, during which the referee hurled Ashcroft off the stage, and had the police not interfered the affair would have inevitably ended in a slugging match. As it was Jack's ear tingled for a while. Cameron refused to continue the combat just then, so the referee gave the match to Richardson, thus terminating the affair very unsatisfactorily, Cameron claiming that the referee should have stopped them when the lamp chimney fell, but said that he was perfectly willing to wrestle again in two weeks' time for any amount. He entered a protest against his share of the stake money being paid over.

John Blake has challenged the "unknown" heavy-weight boxer of New York for a fight to a finish, Marquis of Queensberry rules, for $250 aside and gate receipts, the contest to come off on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 15th, in Hart's Opera House, in this city.

The Right Time.

Probably there is no period in life more important for the mental and moral training of youths than that between eight and seventeen years of age. If the spring-time of life is well employed, good results may be expected in after years. No better preparation can be afforded boys in this province than that which may be obtained at Corrig School, which is already largely patronized, and which a weekly increasing in number

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Evangelistic Revival—The Drybones Stirred Up by Moody.

Like thousands of other sinners, the Major went to hear Mr. Moody Saturday evening. The singing, as usual, was beyond compare, although wanting in that universal heartiness of the previous meeting, owing to the hymns sung not being of the popular class. The singing was therefore confined to the choir, thereby losing in its effect. As a performance it was a success. How any lovers of music could go to the other opera in preference is hard to understand.

Indifference to religion, as well as to many other things of vital interest to the community, has been heretofore characteristic of Victoria. However, we are on the mend, to judge from the vast crowds that assembled in the rink every evening to hear the evangelist. This is a change for the better. It is better than encouraging girls scarcely in their teens to shameless boldness, not to say indecency, to pander to depraved tastes and brazen all sense of modesty and maidenhood, in order to secure the applause of a thoughtless crowd.

Mr. Moody is by no means an eloquent speaker. Yet what gives him such power over the minds of his hearers? It is his simple way of speaking in the language of the people, the homely phrases of every day life told in a pathetic, unvarnished way, that's one of his great secrets as regards his acknowledged influence. Words act on the feelings the same as music when struck in the right key. Yet he has not a musical voice. When words have the full extent of power, they produce in the mind of the hearer three effects—sound, representation, and the affection of the soul produced by the two former. We have the clear expression and the strong expression; the former regards the understanding and the latter the passions. One describes the thing as it is, and the other as it is felt. A moving tone of voice, the agitated gesture, the impassioned countenance, the earnest manner of the speaker touch and move us. We yield to sympathy by the contagion of our feelings and passions. We catch a fire already kindled in another, which probably might not have struck out by any other means.

Religion is a principal of energy; mayhap that is one of the reasons for its scarcity in our atmosphere. It is among the most powerful causes of enthusiasm; it forms the basis of society; it is paramount to all human laws. The Christian religion overcame all opposition. It has been the great secret of England's greatness, aye, and of America's too. Writers against the Christian religion have never set up any of their own that has succeeded. When anything concerning religion crops up in the mind it at once becomes the object of much meditation; it cannot be indifferent to the mind. They that don't love religion, hate it. The haters of Christianity can't very well strike the sun out of Heaven, but they raise a very small smoke that obscures him from their own eyes. We have many of them here who are blinded by their little smoke; let it be hoped we'll have less after Mr. Moody's visit.

Mr. Moody told us on Saturday of Zacheus and the restitution he made and the good he done after he was fetched down from the tree and converted. Where are the Zacheuses of Victoria? There's a goodly number of them, if they'd only come down off their perch. They are overloaded with restitution, and ought to begin to disburden themselves at once.

When Mr. Moody asked were there any of the guilty present who wished to reform and turn from their evil ways, only three desired the prayers of the faithful to assist them in their reformation. Only three persons in a crowd of two thousand! All the rest of us were guiltless! And when the good man asked all that were good to remain, well, we all took our hook. Some thought they couldn't get out fast enough, and left before the benediction. There's consistency for you.

Last evening the crowd at the rink was immense. Although the meeting was not till 8 o'clock, the building commenced to fill at 7 o'clock, and as the churches came out the crowd increased, till the rink filled to overflowing. There were thousands inside and thousands outside, and thousands went away disappointed. The Major was amongst the outcasts; he waited patiently and obtained an entrance at last. "Knock and it shall be opened" was no use last night. The "bobby" would not let you knock. The services were near over when he got in. The preacher was talking to fathers and mothers about their children, inviting them of the doubtful class to a consultation in the back room. Some few accepted it, and the invitation extended to the Christians to remain, caused the exodus of nearly one and all of us. The singing was superb, delightful, heavenly. Three thousand voices! Grand! It is hoped Mr. Moody will remain for some time. If the City Fathers are anxious to carry out their plans of reformation let them secure Mr. Moody's services for a time; he has worked wonders. No one would believe that Victoria was so much alive to their wants in a spiritual sense, saints and sinners, rich and poor alike. It is to be hoped that the good work will continue till Victoria is no more a reproach amongst the cities of the Dominion. The change is welcomed by everyone. Another week even would do wonders; let us have plenty of it.

BURGOYNE BAY.

Improvements—The Prize List—Personals—A Christening, &c.

Still at work. Mr. Clark, from Victoria, is superintending improvements on Burgoyne wharf, when completed this will add yet another improvement to our facilities. We greet the return, after a pleasurable visit to the capital, of Messrs Akerman, Robinson, Wilson, Pollard and Mesdames Wilson and Robinson. Why, all seem to get there except the busy Major—but he trusts—

Deer still salaying, Mr. Akerman recently shipping one of 148 lbs.

Honor to whom honor belongs. Allow us therefore to make two corrections in the prize list of Maple Bay Agricultural Society. First, then, Mr. Lee awarded 1st on shalots, and not Geo. Mingay, as given. Second, E. Musgrave, Esq., 1st on oats in place of R. S. Morrison as reported.

The last touch was given the Burgoyne Church, when last evening the pulpit was handsomely tapestried. Of course the leading dignitaries assisted, even a plurality of ladies. They left some notes to be described in the future. Same evening, in due time, the christening ritual was conducted to the proud son and heir of Mr. and Mrs. Lee. Friends, too, joined in the rejoicing, including the Major.

It has rained heavily for the last few days. THE COUNTRY MAJOR.

AGRICULTURAL LANDS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—You have had a good deal in THE TIMES lately concerning our abundant harvest and the amazing fertility of the soil, especially in the Fraser river section. In view of all that has been said in the press, and all that has been seen at our agricultural fairs, it is rather curious reading to look back on the estimate formed of our land by some of the "knowing ones" in early days. A Malcolm Cameron wrote in 1862 to papers in Ontario, and among other things said: "I saw prairies, open meadows, and pine lands, all of which are fit for agricultural purposes." A contradiction of that and other statements was prepared and signed by forty three men from Ontario; only one of whom is known to the writer to be now in the province—D. S. Mulligan, of this city. Among other statements the following appears: "The only lands he could have seen, while on his picnic excursion skirting the Fraser, are nought but water fields, where men were cutting grass last year, up to their wrists in water, battling manfully, but ineffectually, with myriads of those frightful pests, mosquitoes; and these beautiful meadows are flooded at least six months in the year. Traversing the country as we have, desirous, as many of us should have been, of settling in British Columbia, had we deemed it suitable for settlement, it is our firm conviction that British Columbia is not, and never will be, a country where agriculture will flourish or yield a compensatory return for outlay of capital or labor. The seasons are too short. The land is either too light, or requires irrigation; and in no part is it secure from the blighting effect of frosts, even in the summer season. We believe cereals can never be depended on."

1862.

New Westminster, Oct., 1888.

THE COURAGE OF A COWARD

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—I have read the unmanly and very unprofessional comment of your contemporary on the TIMES libel suit with Mr Dunsmuir. In this the public are informed that it is a crime for you to attack Mr. Dunsmuir. Now this gentleman is in public life. He wields what eight out of every ten persons believe to be a dangerous influence over the government of this province. That he is a monopolist no one can deny, and that he is an exceedingly foxy and plausible one most people must have discovered. What is more, he is a man with a good deal of the autocrat and tyrant in his composition. He has power, and I am not unjust in saying that he is not slow to use it. In talking to people on the street or at their places of business, or at their houses, how often you are told that so and so "is afraid of Dunsmuir" !!! Let anyone recall to mind his conversation with friends and say whether this is true or not. "Afraid of Dunsmuir." Just think of it. What an insult to our intelligence and independence, that any right doing man in the community should be "afraid" of another. What a condemnation of a once poor man, suddenly made wealthy by good fortune, that it should be said of him that those in his power are "afraid" of him. The TIMES does not seem to fear him, and thank God for it. More power to it. There is a great work to perform. As for the toady Colonist it will probably never have more courage than is sufficient to attack ministers of religion and Christian missionaries—in other words the courage of a coward.

INDEPENDENCE.

CAPITAL AND LABOR.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—I would wish to ask Mr. Moody what is his opinion regarding the "use and abuse of money? His large experience will be able to answer this question fully. Yours etc. LABOREE.

Victoria, Oct. 12th, 1888.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous. *

CANADA, MY CANADA.

The following is a parody going the rounds of Randall's "Maryland, my Maryland," from the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The haddock's feet are on thy shore,
Canada, my Canada!
The halibut is at thy door,
Canada, my Canada!
For smelt and gudgeon, chub and eel
For codfish, hake and Mackerel,
Arise and meet the Yankee steel!
Canada, my Canada!

Thou wilt not cower in the brine,
Canada, my Canada!
Thou wilt not drop thy fishing line,
Canada, my Canada!
Defend the sculpin, save thy skate,
Strike for thy shad with sole elate,
Don't swear and spit upon thy bait.
Canada, my Canada!

Deal gently with a herring race,
Canada, my Canada!
Put up thy swordfish in its place,
Canada, my Canada!
If for reprisal thou would'st sue,
Just turn thy other cheek, please do,
And take a Yankee smack or two,
Canada, my Canada!

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Furred Tongue and Impure Breath are two concomitants of biliousness remedied by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Heartburn, which harasses the dyspeptic after meals, and all the perplexing and changeful symptoms of established indigestion, are dispersed by this salutary corrective tonic and celebrated blood purifier. *

—Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunnville, Ont, writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vetetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pimples on the Face, Biliousness, and Constipation—such cases having come under my personal observation." *

—Those intolerably painful and constantly harassing things called piles, which trouble so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—the great external remedy for physical suffering and means for relieving pains. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind. *

—C. C. Jacobs, Buffalo, an employee of the U. S. Express Co., says: Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured him of a bad case of Piles of 8 years standing, having tried almost every known remedy, "besides two Buffalo physicians," without relief; but the Oil cured him; he thinks it cannot be recommended too highly. *

—Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you. *

—Is there anything more annoying than having your corns stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced. *

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE PACIFIC MAIL CONTRACT.

London, Oct. 14—Every detail of the Pacific mail contract has now been finally settled between the Imperial Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Tenders for three new steamers will be received within a week. The contract stipulates that the service shall commence within 18 months, the company receiving annually £45,000 from the Imperial Government, in addition to $15,000 from the Dominion Government for monthly service for ten years from Vancouver, not only to Yokohama and Hongkong, as at first intended, but also calling at Shanghai. Increasing anxiety is felt here to learn that the Dominion Government has realized that the whole efficiency of the Canadian route to the east now depends on the Atlantic service. If that equals that of New York, with a speed, say of 18 knots, the Canadian route to Hongkong will easily compete with that via Suez. Otherwise the fast Canadian Railway and Pacific services are useless.

It is felt very strongly in official and commercial circles that if Canada intends to become the British route to the east, she must make sacrifices to initiate an adequate Atlantic service. It is pointed out that Australasia, with a population of four millions, annually pays for a purely ocean service, $315,000, while Canada pays only a fractional amount of the same. The Times, in an editorial to-day, commenting on a correspondent's letter, indicates Canada's clear duty. The letter says that many here are wistfully awaiting the decision of the Dominion Government. It rests with them to give just that admirable service with perfect terminal arrangements which Atlantic travelers long for. The Times editorial adds that if the Dominion apprehends the opportunity it is entitled to anticipate that Canada will become the main link across two oceans, opening up a wide range to visitors, and it is very likely some day to have a solid basis for this traffic.

WIT AND WISDOM.

Mme. Patti has concluded a contract to return to Buenos Ayres next year at $6250 per night.

The city of New York spends on its schools about $5,000,000 a year. Philadelphia spends less than $2,000,000, Boston more than Philadelphia, but still less than $2,000,000, and Baltimore three-quarters of a million. The cost of each child's teaching in a year in New York is about $31, in Boston $26, in Baltimore about $18, in Philadelphia about $17.

The greatest feat yet achieved in photography is that of photographing a bullet traveling at the rate of 1300 feet a second. This has been done by Professor Salcher, of Fiume, Austria.

"What do you mean, Susan, by putting on my new hat and admiring yourself in the glass?" Maid—"Oh, mum, I don't mean any harm. I only thought I would like to see how your hat sets off a pretty face."

John Currie, the Scottish evangelist, has been preaching for six months in the mining towns of Colorado where his work has been crowned with a large measure of success.

An indiscreet young man once asked a lady her age. "Wait while I count," she replied. "I married at eighteen; my husband was then thirty. Now he is twice that—then I must be thirty-six." "Is it possible?" ejaculated the other aghast at this novel method of feminine computation.

Probably the oldest pupil in any educational institution in this country is Crazy Head, once chief of the Crows, now a scholar at the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa. He is over 60 years old, and was once a brave war r and an able ruler.

"Does your husband still call you by pet names?" one married lady asked another. "Well, not quite. When we were first married he used to call me a kitten; now he calls me a cat."

"Father," said the editor's little boy, "is the Emperor of Germany an editor? I see when he speaks of himself he says 'We.'" "No, my son. That is a word the emperors have stolen from the editors without proper credit."

A Success.

The French Hotel, under the management of the well known epicure, Mr. Escalet, is meeting with excellent success. All speak in glowing terms of the cuisine. The place to get the best dinner in town. Meals at all hours during the day. *

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Ice Cream at Steits's.

—The Northwest Legislative Assembly has been called for the 29th inst.

—The Guardian complains of a scarcity of laborers in that part of the country.

—W. H. Vinnan, of Westminster, expects to source 300 barrels of cranberries this year.

—The Rithet has retired for the winter. The Louise will take her place until spring.

—Meetings of the New Westminster Teachers Institute will be held on the 4th, 5th and 6th of January.

—Fresh Oysters at the New England Bakery. Delivered to all parts of the city. Telephone No. 161.

—For interesting reading see inside pages. "The Town Major" and the racy letter of our Vancouver correspondent illumine the second page.

—For the largest and best assortment of FURNITURE, CARPETS, CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, LAMPS, &c., go to J. SEHL, Government Street, where you are sure to get suited in style, quality and lowest prices.

—The death is announced of Thomas Lett Stahlschmidt, in London, on the 19th ult. Mr. Stahlschmidt arrived in this province in the year 1859 and engaged in business for many years. He removed to England in 1876, and subsequently held the position of agent general for British Columbia in London. He was 55 years of age.

—A Mainland contemporary complains of the dirty, evil smelling, one and two dollar notes. There are certainly a great many of them afloat through the country, but if they are paid into the banks of B. C. they never see the light again. If our contemporary, the Guardian, will only pass over its dilapidated bills to the banks, the evil will soon be cured.

Goes to Vancouver.

A deputation from Vancouver visited this city last week and waited on Mr. Moody, with the request that he should visit the terminus. Mr. Moody has consented to go when his series of services in this city are completed, and preparations are being made for his reception.

The Isabel's Route.

The Vancouver World is in a position to state that "the Hon. Robert Dunsmuir, with that enterprise which has always characterized him, will place a steamer on the Vancouver-Nanaimo route for the carrying of passengers and freight." The steamer Isabel is being fitted up for the service.

Bowell's Belief.

Hon. Mr. Bowell, on being interviewed on the U. S. Exclusion Bill said: "Every Chinaman who lands in Canada has to pay $50 and is provided with a certificate which he has to show whenever required. Any Chinese who are refused admission into the United States will have to pay the $50 on entering Canada or else they will have to remain out. I have no doubt it will result in a small increase in the number of Chinese settlers in Canada, but no doubt a great many will land in the Dominion for the purpose of smuggling themselves into the United States."

Subjects for Meditation.

What do you think of Mr. Moody and his crusade?

The Moral By-Law and the City Council?

The proposed schemes for cleansing the city, physically and otherwise?

The presence at the Moody meeting of ex-Mayor Fell, who said "it was the best 'spiritual' meeting he had been at for a long time."

The effect of Mr. Moody's preaching on the politicians present?

The probable hope of the great Evangelist producing some effect on the Colonist?

"As we sow so shall we reap." Some will have a big harvest.

Whatcom Real Estate.

In another column we draw attention to the fact that Mr. Reginald Jones, real estate agent, of New Whatcom, but late of Victoria, is in the city with land to sell in a city that promises to be a rival to San Francisco, for should Hills' Manitoba Road locate its terminus on Bellingham Bay, it will not be long before a city of 100,000 people will spring into existence. Everything that a large city requires is right there on the spot—lumber, stone, iron, coal, and a vast tract of fertile land, backed by a lake ten miles long, 316 feet above sea level, and only three miles from the shore. These things when taken in conjunction with one of the finest harbors in the world, make a combination hard to beat.

British Columbia Trade.

During the first nine months of 1888 and 1887 the merchandise exports from San Francisco to British Columbia were valued as follows.

Months—	1888.	1887.
January	$24,300	$39,948
February	65,354	38,958
March	73,920	94,772
April	61,980	85,879
May	91,783	97,240
June	128,474	65,377
July	92,231	98,456
August	69,225	59,828
September	56,080	80,518
Totals	$620,247	$657,411

Showing a comparative decrease this year of $37,164 The exports in the past month included 65 bbls. flour, 122 ctls. barley, 20,711 lbs. sugar, 720 lbs. tea, 26,955 lbs. coffee, 1,826 galls. and 21 cs. wine, besides the usual assortment of groceries, provisions, hardware, etc.

WORKMEN'S STRIKE

Corporation Laborers Quit Work—Hours and Pay Reduced.

About 45 men engaged in digging trenches and laying pipes for the corporation refused to go to work this morning under the new arrangement. On Saturday the Water Committee decided to put the men on three-quarter time instead of the regular day of ten hours. This step was caused by the shortening hours of daylight. The men did not object to this but could not stand a reduction of wages They handed a communication on the question to the Mayor and Council this morning.

The men working for the city as laborers, trench-diggers, etc., have been receiving $2 per day of ten hours work. Two dollars in Victoria is generally considered about the minimum pay at which men can keep soul and body together, especially those who have families to support as most of the corporation workmen have. A reduction of hours to three-quarter time and an equivalent curtailment of wages means only $1.50 per day—the regular standard for Chinese laborers. When the men have to suffer the loss of the wet days, when work cannot be carried on outdoors, it is clear that the men have some cause to resent the parsimony of the aldermen. They think also, that they can still work full time, and that the reduction of hours have been made too soon.

MINE ON FIRE

The Southfield Coal Mine on Fire—No Loss of Life.

[Special to THE TIMES.]

Nanaimo, Oct. 15—A fire occurred in the Vancouver Company's South Field mine this morning about 3 o'clock which is supposed to have been caused by the steam pipes. A few men were down in the mine at the time who barely escaped with their lives. As it was three of them were slightly hurt by falling rock.

Nanaimo, Oct. 15—The fire at the South Field mine is now all confined to the last 100 yards from the up-cast and will be out by to-morrow morning. Three streams are playing on the fire below, and it is controlled now to a rock tunnel. Three men were slightly hurt by falling rock. The cause of the fire is believed to have been spontaneous combustion.

LATER—(4 p. m.)—The fire is still burning, but there is no flame in sight now. No smoke is coming out of the air shaft, only steam. Men are now able to go down the slope.

Parties who came down from Nanaimo by to-day's train state that sparks were flying out of the shaft this morning and rising to a height of one or two hundred feet.

POLICE COURT.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q. C.]

Ah Wong, on remand from the 12th inst., charged with stealing $10 from Mrs. Bunster.

Mr. McNab Stuart appeared for the defense and said he understood the charge was withdrawn.

His Honor said he received a letter from Mrs. Bunster stating that the money was found.

The Chinaman was discharged.

R. Copeland, charged with stealing $10 from D. McFadden.

B. Gordon said he changed a $20 note for the complainant.

The defendant said he was not present and did not steal the money. Prisoner was declared not guilty.

Theo. Davie, Q. C., then appeared and said there was a charge against E. Hodges for breaking away from an officer. The defendant was present in court and was willing to give himself up. The court might fix the bail.

His Honor—But he is charged with breaking out of the lock-up. That is a misdemeanor. He can be tried under the Speedy Trials Act.

The information of Officer Walker was read which said the said Edward Hodges on the 13th day of January did escape from the custody of Jailer Hawton.

Officer Walker swore to the information and said he was one of the officers who arrested Hodges. Prisoner was admitted to bail in the sum of $400. He was to furnish $200 himself and two sureties of $100 each.

Stephen Georges, charged with being drunk. Fined $5.

Two charges of running over Rock Bay bridge were settled on payment of seven dollars.

Ah Lim, charged with supplying liquor to Indians. Officer Mitten deposed to arresting prisoner. Officer Thomas arrested Mrs. Cooper, an Indian woman, with the liquor. She came from prisoner's cabin. Officer Lindsay said he assisted to arrest the Chinaman.

The superintendent said it would be as well to make a strong case against the prisoner. He has been before the court on several occasions and was kicked out of the Provincial gaol because he was a leper. If a strong case was made against him he could be sent to the gaol and something done with him. The prisoner should be sent somewhere because he is diseased as well as being an inveterate whiskey seller. Imprisonment for one month.

Geo. Kenny, charged with stealing a pair of gum boots from H. Mansell's store. Sentenced to imprisonment for three months.

THE DOORS SHUT.

Exclusion of Chinese from the United States—Arbitary Power.

On board the Mexico which arrived from San Francisco this afternoon are six Chinese for the Sound which will not be allowed to land if the same course is followed as in the case of the Ancon from Alaska. Both are American bottoms sailing from American ports, and both have touched a foreign port. From what is known of the Chinese exclusion bill, the construction put upon it by the Pacific coast collectors of the U. S. Customs is arbitary and unjustifiable. The first clause of the bill specifically refers to "Chinese laborers," and says nothing about Chinese merchants, persons attached to a diplomatic corps or Chinese travelling for pleasure, who were exempted under the old restriction bill. As the collector at Port Townsend has been excluding all Chinese indiscriminately, it would perhaps be worth his while considering whether the act justifies it before continuing it any further.

RECKLESS SHOOTING.

A Bullet Passes Through a Window Narrow Escape.

On Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock a bullet passed through the window of a house occupied by Mrs. Meiss, on Pandora street, breaking the glass, cutting through the curtain and dropping on the floor in the dining room. Enquiries in the neighborhood elicited the fact that a young man was practicing with a Flobert rifle in a paint shop across the Johnson street ravine. He fired several shots into a door and one passed through with the effect above stated. Mrs. Meiss stated that she usually sits in front of the window which was shattered by the bullet and left the room but a few minutes before the shooting took place. This reckless shooting should be discontinued. The door in the paint shop on the opposite side of the ravine contains numerous bullets fired by the individual. Some of the marks show that the bullets passed clean through. The police were notified but did not take any steps further than visiting the place and making enquiries

SURRENDERS HIMSELF.

E. Hodges Appears in the Police Court This Morning.

Shortly after commencing proceedings in the police court this morning Mr. Theo. Davie, Q. C., entered the court room from the door leading to the Council Chambers. He was accompanied by Edward Hodges, whose daring ride through the streets of Victoria was reported on Saturday. His counsel announced that Hodges wished to surrender himself on a charge of escaping from an officer whilst under arrest. His Honor said the charge was a misdemeanor and the man was liable to be sent for trial. Officer Walker was called and swore to the information which was laid against Hodges. Mr. Davie then asked for a remand until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The remand was granted and bail fixed at $400. Hodges was bound over in the sum of $200 and his bondsmen, J. G. Taylor and Geo. Rudge furnished bonds in the sum of $100 each.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

COAL $10 A TON.

This is the month when we begin
To light the evening fire,
And every time a chunk goes in
The price of coal goes higher.

In early twilight's shawdows dim,
The measly gas is lighted,
Its bill rolls on from set to sun
While parlor troths are plighted.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

"Age Cannot Wither Her," remarked an old gentleman, as he gazed fondly upon the comely little woman by his side; "but frankly," he continued, "at one time I was afraid cosmetics would." The silly little woman, in order to appear youthful, plastered her face with different varieties of whitewash, yclept "balms," "creams," "lotions," etc. "Yes," interrupted the little woman, "I did, until my skin became like parchment, and so pimply and coarse." "Well," said the listner, "what do you use now?" "Use," was the reply, "nothing but common sense, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Common sense told me if my blood was pure, liver regulated, appetite good, that the outward woman would take on the hue of health. The 'Discovery' did all those things, and actually rejuvenated me."

Its thousands of cures are the best advertisement for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. wed-sat
